

Whereas the Graduate Student Council has passed a resolution in support of the graduate student workers of HGSU-UAW, and

Whereas graduate student workers at Harvard ought to decide freely and democratically whether they wish to unionize and bargain collectively, and

Whereas Harvard University has joined an amicus brief advocating against the legal right of graduate student workers at private universities to unionize and bargain collectively, and

Whereas this action by Harvard interferes with the democratic rights of graduate student workers, including those of HGSU-UAW,

Be it therefore resolved, the Graduate Student Council condemns Harvard's actions in joining this amicus brief and opposing the right of graduate student workers to unionize or not unionize by a democratic process
