The Petey Greene Program at GSAS
Granted: $1000.00
Notes: Thanks for your application. The GSC Funding Committee understands that transportation is expensive, but the GSC does not typically support such large expenses for such small groups of people. Please make a sincere effort to reduce your transportation costs going forward. If zipcar is truly your only option, we will support you as best we can going forward.

Harvard Chinese Students and Scholars Association
Granted: $1775
Notes: Thanks for your application! Harvard Chinese Students and Scholars Association requested $0/$511 awarded in Spring 2018 in reimbursement. We hope to award your group more funds going forward if you demonstrate that you request your awards in the necessary time frame.

Science in The News
Granted: $225.00*
Notes: Thanks for your application! Science in the News requested $300/$500 awarded in Winter 2017, and $0/$262 awarded in Spring 2018 in reimbursement. We hope to award your group more funding in the future if you demonstrate that you use the funds we award to you in the necessary time frame.

GSAS Minority Biomedical Scientists of Harvard
Granted: $1800.00
Notes: Thanks for your application! Please be mindful that food expenses should reflect the number of expected attendees. Reminding you that Minority Biomedical Scientists of Harvard has not yet requested any of its Summer 2018 award in reimbursement.

Harvard GSAS Science Policy Group
Granted: $623.00
Notes: Thank you for providing thorough descriptions for all of your proposed events; we appreciate this! Going forward, for events such as the SEPA/NSPN meeting, please confirm that all GSAS students have the opportunity to apply to be one of the 6 students sent to the meeting. If not all students are eligible, please explain in detail why the 6 students are pre-selected, and how their attendance at this meeting will impact the broader GSAS community. Science Policy Group requested $330/$1400 awarded in Winter 2017, and $600/$1000 awarded in Spring 2018 in reimbursement. We hope to award your group more funding in the future if you demonstrate that you request reimbursement in the necessary time frame.

Harvard Big Data Club in GSAS
Granted: $775.00*
